

The Title XX Adolescent Family Life Program

Office of Adolescent Pregnancy Programs (OAPP) Current AFL Grantees 2007

The Office of Adolescent Pregnancy Programs (OAPP) funds innovative demonstration projects for up to five year periods. Care demonstration projects develop and test methods of serving pregnant adolescents, adolescent parents, their infants, adolescent fathers, long-term male partners and families. Prevention demonstration projects provide innovative and holistic abstinence education as defined by the A-H criteria contained in Title V, Section 510(b)(2). Each prevention grantee is expected to provide intensive and strengths-based programming that teaches abstinence until marriage in the context of meeting life goals and acquiring life skills, while incorporating youth development principles.

Care grantees are identified in green and prevention grantees are identified in magenta below.
